UNITY THROUGH DIVERSITY . . .

EVERYTHING IS BEAUTIFUL

Jesus loves the little children, all the little children of the world, Red and yellow, black and white,
they are precious in his sight, Jesus loves the little children of the world. Everything is beautiful in its own way, Like a starry summer night or a snow covered winter's day. Everybody's beautiful in their own way, under God's heaven the world's gonna find a way. There is none so blind as he who will not see, We must not close our minds,
We must let our thoughts be free,
For ev'ry hour that passes by you know the world gets a little bit older, It's time to realize that beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder. Everything is beautiful in its own way.

Ray Stevens

Brett,
Again, I again say that it was mistaking for you to be a preacher. But Remember that true happiness comes from within and to love yourself before others. Don't be afraid to touch those who reach out to you, they only want to know you as you really are; a sweet, considerate, slightly shy person with a very sarcastic wit. Ride with the tide. Take care and have a terrific summer.

I wish you multiple fractures forever.

See you next year.

Love,

TO KNOW HER WAS TO RESPECT HER

"Mrs. VanCamp made an indelible impression on my life. She was one of the first educators that I have had the privilege of knowing. Her dedication, loyalty, and belief in the worth of North High students has left a legacy that will enrich our school for years to come. Her courage in the face of great personal pain has been an inspiration and a cause for hope for every life that hers has touched."

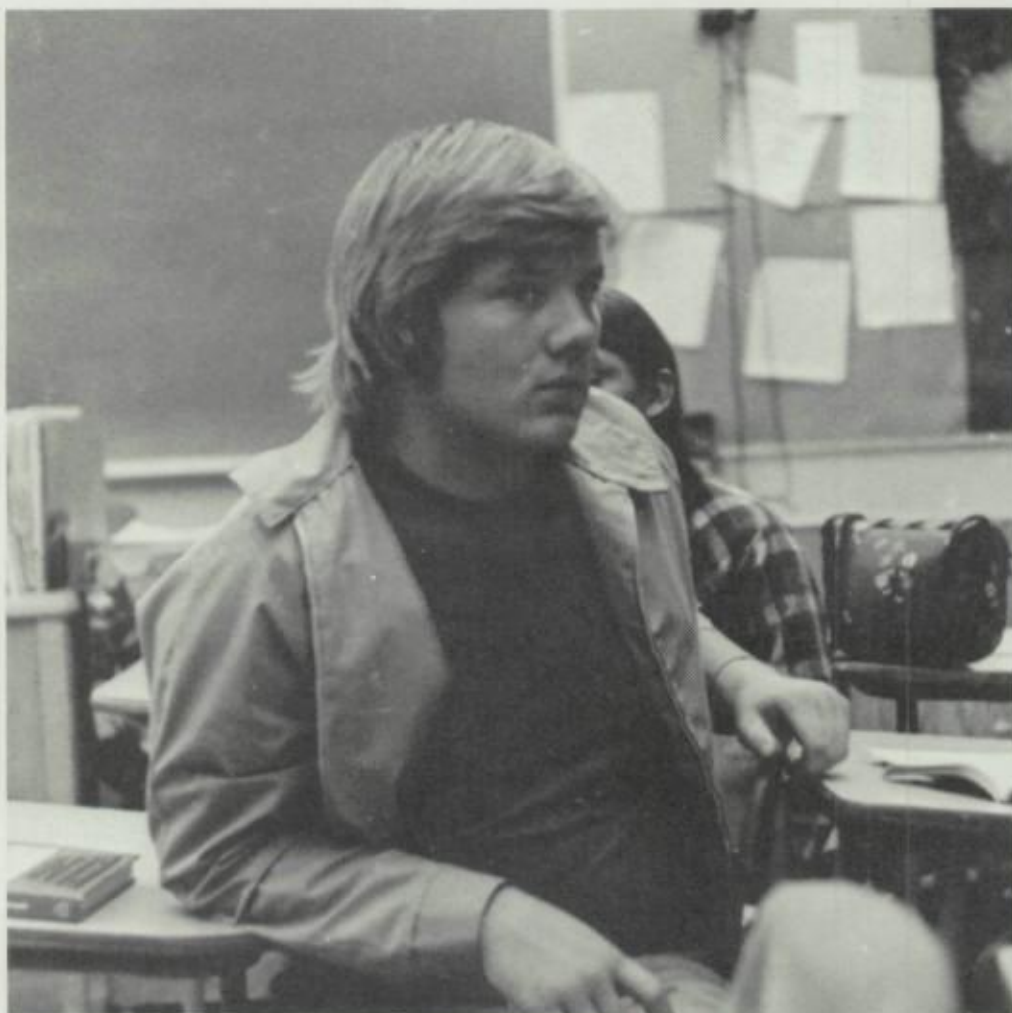

Horace Jackson

"The measure of life is not in its duration, but its donation. Although the duration of Mrs. Van Camp's life was brief, in its donation, the measure is full and running over. No one can Estimate just how far reaching her influence was on the lives of those North High students and staff who were privileged to know her."

Breath,

Hi? Well, we have made it through another year. I think we have changed a lot over the last two years that we have been friends. The performances "Tiger", "Midsummer" and finally "Devils" were all FANTASTIC and that is a totally unbiased point of view. One thing that I really enjoy about being in the theater is the people you meet. I'm glad that we have become as close as we have because of these rehearsals. In "Tiger" you helped me when Sergio was giving me such a hard time. (Now that I look back on that situation I have to smile because I probably overreacted) and in "Midsummer" you made me smile during my saddest months. (Even that low depression doesn't seem so bad now) and in "Devils" you talked to me so I wouldn't have to listen to all those filthy mouthed, proportioning stagehands. I don't really mean that about the stagehands but it sounded good.

I want you to know that I always have fun with you and I hope that the few times that we have shared together won't be the last.

I hope

you

go on with

the

play

next year but

I don't think

I will

because of various reasons.

(I don't like

the play

chosen too well)

Even though it is thrilling that is a bi-centennial year, don't you think that everyone is overdoing it a bit?

I hope you passed the History A.P. test and I hope I passed it too!! That was a very special class especially with "Seyman Bean" as teacher!

Mrs. Appleford sure doesn't believe in typecasting. I mean - you as a preacher? A lot of our audience were there just because they couldn't believe it when I told them that you were "Anthony"! I thought you were great.

I hope that you are always very happy and that you won't suffer any real disillusionments. If I've hurt you in any way all I can say is that I'm very sorry and that it was never intentional.

Keep on partying and to hell with the C.I.F.!!!

Love, Kathy

THIRD YEAR

My Dear Brett,

Again comes time to sign these damned things. Actually, I find this time a rewarding one in many ways. At least people can express themselves to one another.

Regarding you. I've known you for about a year, now, and during that time I have seen you change from a cute kid to a bottle-sourred "hipster".

As I go on to further obscurity, I will leave you with a valuable piece of advice that has helped me to survive thus far:

"The best draught that one can drink is the swallowing of ^{one's} anger."

Archaic, yes; emphatic, yes; useless, NO.

Take care, Brett, and may the coming year find you in good health and spirits.

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who, at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

- Theodore Roosevelt

In commemoration of America's 200th birthday (Bicentennial) the Aurora staff sponsored a yearbook cover design contest. Out of the one hundred entries (most who were enrolled in Mr. White's Art Class) submitted, CINDY WENNERMARK emerged as the winner. Cindy won a plaque, fifty dollars in cash, and a beautiful AURORA yearbook for her time, effort and creativity in designing this years AURORA cover. Mr. White, Mr. Knie and Mr. Reinhold are to be commended for their efforts in helping to judge entries and in supportive efforts of the yearbook.

As another year has come to pass it is now the time to look forward into the future, as well as look back on the memories of the past. We are the leaders and laborers of tomorrow. It is up to us to decide the fate of this world on which we live. The road we take would best be one into which no barriers of race or ethnic origin exist. We will inherit a world filled with death, crime, inhumanity, pollution, and hatred. The changes we make can transform this world into a beacon of peace, friendship, and a world of harmony or we can be apathetic towards the problems which now surround us and destroy the earth on which we live.

How will you decide?

Well, we make it through two plays this year and in both of them you were really good. It's really interesting to see the improvement in each play.
Next year though, I'm not sure I'm going to be behind the scenes - make-up - I want to be in the plays!

I hope that I'll be in a class of yours next year so then I'll see a little more of you. Have a nice summer and I hope I'll see you a lot during it.

Husan Reynolds

Brett,
 Wish me luck

Brett,
 You have grown into a mature and delightful person, although I know that sounds odd coming from someone just a year older. I have appreciated you so much during all the productions - please keep up all the traditions, because they do have value.

 I have a lot of

 now. I will tell you when I see you.

Brett,
I can admire
you kind of character. If I want anything done
that is illegal and/or immoral, I will contact you first.
Keep up the immorality and who knows - maybe I'll be one of your disciples.....

Brett,

Dear Brett,
I have really enjoyed having you around here all of this time - most of the time. Looks like you are for good. I finished with our being the shadow leadership thing. I hope it works out OK. Good luck in all you do.
